Lage & Umgebung:

Brits is a town in South Africa, located in a very fertile area where are produced lot of citrus and vegetables. It is definite as being an agricultural center but it is also known as a home of several industries. You have as an example the Italian car maker, Alfa Romeo who has its factory here.

The town was created in 1924 and took the name of the owner of the farm, Johannes Nicolaas Brits. Since 2006 the city of Brits has known a development boom because of the mining activity in the region.
